

SOCIETY AND OTHER INTERESTS OF WOMEN

SOCIETY

Mrs. Fred Schweltzer, 1097 Riverside dr., was hostess to members of the Fidelity Bible class of the First Evangelical church Tuesday evening, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent at games and contests with favors going to Miss Alice Loeblstedt, and Miss Maude Noble. A luncheon was served near the close with covers laid for 10. Hyacinths were used for decorating. The next meeting will be held with Misses Mayme Evans and Maude Noble, 422 N. Wood st., April 25.

Mrs. James Drogan, 302 Sycamore st., pleasantly entertained with a birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Esther Winter, Tuesday evening. The affair was in the nature of a dinner party and covers were laid for 13 guests. Easter lilies with red and pink roses formed the attractive decorations. Following the dinner the guests enjoyed cards and music.

The usual monthly meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church was held on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. C. L. Warner, 323 S. Franklin st. Mrs. B. H. Wood had charge of the devotional service and Mrs. A. P. Sibbey acted as leader for the meeting. "A Reclaiming Force" was the topic of a reading given by Mrs. V. A. Rogers; Mrs. E. E. Berner gave a review of "An Educational Force" an instructive talk on "Temperance" was given by Mrs. Warner, and Mrs. Mary Burrows had a reading on "Tithing." Plans were made for the district convention to be held at the First M. E. church May 16 and 17 when more than 60 delegates are expected to be present. During the business session the annual mite box opening took place with very favorable results. Refreshments were served to the 40 members present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Albert Myers, Mrs. A. W. Lee and Mrs. H. J. Stansbury. The society will meet May 16.

Miss Amanda M. Frank and Robert L. McHenry, both of this city, were married Monday evening at the home of the bride, Main and Division sts., by the Rev. Edwin W. Castle of the Linden Avenue Christian church in the presence of 90 friends and relatives. The bride wore a wedding gown of white silk with a wreath of lilies of the valley and greenery. Her flowers were a corsage of lilies and ferns. The couple was attended by Mrs. Floyd M. Fishburn as matron of honor and Miss Laverne Wakeland as bridesmaid and Leo Frank, brother of the bride, acted as best man. A three-course supper was served after the ceremony. The home was prettily decorated with roses, lilies of the valley and carnations with palms.

The regular meeting of the Auteu W. R. C. No. 14 was held last evening in the old court house. After the transaction of the routine business the corps adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening. Plans were made for a thimble to be given next Tuesday afternoon when the hostesses will be Mrs. Minnie Voedisch, Mrs. Anna McBroome, Mrs. Christina Kleindinst, Mrs. Louis Calvert, Mrs. Anna Flagg and Mrs. Jennie Bortz. There will be a guest prize given and also a prize for the member bringing the most guests.

Dance Frock of Flesh-Colored Net

By La Raconteuse.

One's wardrobe is incomplete unless among other garments there is an all net dance frock. One particularly simple but smart frock is shown in flesh colored silk net. The ribbon trimmed net over skirt falls in billowy folds over a lining of flesh colored satin. The bodice is extremely simple, featuring a deep basque of net over satin and shoulder pieces of net. A dainty corsage of field flowers is placed at the waistline, affording a gay contrasting note.

A pleasant social time is promised with some special entertaining features.

A passover feast was celebrated Monday evening at the Temple Beth-El under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the temple. Mrs. M. J. Frankel acted as chairman of a committee of 10 in charge of the evening. Dinner was served to a company of 70 guests following the religious service given by Rabbi Leibert who has been named to take charge of the temple the first of September. Spring flowers adorned the dinner tables, and during the social part of the evening dancing and musical selections were enjoyed.

Members of the mothers' department of the Progress club were entertained with an excellent talk on "Dramatic Instinct in Children" by Mrs. C. E. Banta Tuesday afternoon at the final department meeting of the year. Mrs. J. Harris read a most interesting paper on "How to Make a Child's Room Attractive," and a round table talk followed. More definite plans were made for the general meeting of the club to be held on Monday, May 8. The state president of the Florence Crittenton circle, Mrs. S. T. Stinson of Terre Haute, who was to have addressed the members, was called to Chicago and was unable to be present.

Plans are being made by the Knights of Columbus for an Easter dancing party to be given May 4 in the American hall. The Mesick orchestra will give the program of dances.

Members of the Helena Rebekah lodge held their regular business meeting Tuesday evening in the hall. During the business time two applications for membership were read.

George W. Coleman of Boston will be in South Bend and speak in the First Baptist church Friday evening. Mr. Coleman is the director of the Ford Hall Forum. He is also the president of the Boston city council. His address will be on the theme of his recent book, "Democracy in the Making."

Mill Girl's Voice Lures Cupid

MISS BARBARA BOURHILL. PATERSON, N. J.—Miss Barbara Bourhill, a pretty 20-year-old worker in a silk mill here, is in receipt of a proposal of marriage as a result of her winning out over 100 competitors for the distinction of being "local soloist" at the annual Paterston musical festival. A week after her triumph in the singing competition came a letter from the Rev. Lawrence A. Clay of Hattiesburg, Miss., proposing that Barbara Bourhill should become Mrs. Clay. But although she is greatly pleased and means to write Mr. Clay a nice letter of thanks, Barbara Bourhill is not going to think of marriage, she says—not for a long time.

Parasols and Swagger Sticks for Easter

To complete the Easter outfit don't forget a Friendship Link Parasol or the Wrist Band Loop or a Swagger Stick. The latter you carry on your arm with wrist cords and is a cross between a La Tosca stick and a gentleman's cane. The covering is of umbrella silk in colors or stripes, giving the impression of a tightly folded parasol. —Main Floor, rear.

N. Y. C. Representative Examines Old Records in Court House.

W. L. Hunter, representing the New York Central lines, who has been examining St. Joseph county records to determine the physical valuation placed on the railroad lines by the county since the construction of the road, completed his work here Wednesday.

The work is being done at the direction of the government to determine the exact cost of the road from year to year since its construction and set the physical valuation each year. It is estimated that it will require five years in which to complete this work.

Mr. Hunter came here from Goshen and went to Plymouth late this afternoon to continue his work.
